Computing in the library...

Are there computers I can use in the library?
Yes. There are computers in the Learning Commons located on the 1st floor and the loft area on the 2nd floor.

What resources are available?
The Learning Commons computers include Macs and PC’s with Internet Access, Microsoft Office, SPSS, ArcGis and more. The Learning Commons offers 3 printers as well as multiple scanners.

Can I print?
Yes! You start out the semester with $1.25 on your printing account. Black & white printing is 5 cents per page; color printing is 50 cents per page. You can print from any of the computer available in the Learning Commons, or from your own laptop with the appropriate software download: http://occs.odu.edu/labs/remoteprint/remote_print.shtml

How do I add value to my printing account?
To add to your printing account via credit card, go to https://www.odu.edu/apps/touchnet/payprint/ and fill out the online form. You can also pay cash at the Circulation Desk on the 2nd floor.

Is Wireless computing available in the Library?
Yes. Bring your own laptop or check one out from the Learning Commons Help Desk for use in the library.

Logging In...

To use the Library computers, you need to login with your Midas account

What is a MIDAS account?

MIDAS is a log-in ID and password management system for accessing various ODU online resources.

Your MIDAS account is also required to access Library journals and databases from home. Just choose the “Off-campus login” link on the library homepage.

For more information on accounts, computing services, printing, etc., at ODU, contact the Office of Computing & Communications Services (OCCS) occselp@odu.edu or call (757) 683-3192.
